

FAQs

DANVERS YOUTH SOCCER FUNDAMENTALS

Q. What is the U06 program all about?

A. It's about the kids having fun while learning soccer skills.

Q. When does the Fall Season begin/end?

A. We Start Sat Sept 10th 8am for Boys and 9:00 for Girls. Last session is Nov 5 and there is no fundamentals Columbus Day weekend

Q. Where is Fundamentals?

A. The Fall 2010 sessions will be held at John Georg Park ,35 River St Danvers, on Saturdays at 8am for boys and 9:00 for girls

Q. What is the format of the U06 program?

A. Its an hour program. The children will participate in fun games which incorporate the fundamentals of soccer and small-sided games with no goalie and no score keeping.

Q. What team is my child on?

A. There are no real teams; the children will be split up for small games during the program.

Q. Where do I get the uniform?

A. Uniforms are available at Neatco at 474 Lowell St in Peabody

Q. Where do I get soccer cleats?

A. Soccer cleats can be purchased at almost any Sporting Goods store (The Sports Authority and Dicks Sporting Goods in Danvers)

Q. Can my child wear Baseball/Softball Cleats?

A. No, there is a difference. Baseball cleats have a toe cleat which is not allowed in Soccer.

Q. How can I get involved in DYS?

A. Become a coach. Come to a Board Meeting. Join a Danvers Invitational Tournament Committee

Q. Is there coaches training available?

A. Yes. DYS has a Director of coaching, Simon Deegan, who will provide coaches training. See schedule posted on website.

For more information visit our Website at www.DanversYouthSoccer.org

Danvers Youth Soccer is a volunteer organization – help us make it great.

In Summary:

Season Starts Sat Sept 10th

8:00 Boys

9:00 Girls

John George Park

Uniforms available at Neatco

Bring size 3 soccer ball shin pads required

